Dear Major Brown,

The story in this morning's Washington Post about your yesterday's testimony reminds me that for some time I've been meaning to ask for your list. I'd appreciate a copy.

This story is very brief, saying little. Did you raise the question of press freedom, of the first amendment?

Did you get the impression the committee intends to promulgate a law that mmight limit this freedom?

Or that the executive branch intends to accomplish this purpose by the means available to it?

If you have a copy of your testimony to spare, I'd like to be able to read it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
